CORRELATION TABLE II²

This table indicates for each article of the Internal Regulations before the technical alignment whether this article was integrated in the Articles of Association (see second column) or whether this article remains (as the case might be under a new article number) in the Internal Regulations (see third column). In case the third column contains a “-”, then this means that the said article of the Internal Regulations was not withheld (either because it is a double up with the Articles of Association or because it was only an introduction clause without substantive meaning).
